

LIFESTYLE

Must-See Hong Kong Art Shows

Looking for your next culture fix? Check out these new must-see Hong Kong art shows...

This month there are plenty of creative happenings to get stuck into (with some available to enjoy online!), including street art displayed in barbershops, a curation of works collected by female art patrons and pieces inspired by The Little Prince in honour of the book's 75th anniversary. Whether you're after a relaxing alternative weekend activity or an inspiring post-work pick-me-up, here's our pick of the newest Hong Kong art shows you won't want to miss. Happy viewing!

Editor's Note: Social distancing regulations remain in place in Hong Kong, so please make sure you follow the latest government advice when heading out. It's a good idea to check via the event provider's website/Facebook page to see if there are any last minute changes to these events and that you are aware of any restrictions they have put in place.

Bling Dynasty

Global pop and consumer culture collide with traditional Chinese art in this upcoming exhibition. Titled Bling Dynasty, this playful showcase features a series of new works by Hong Kong-based artist Ernest Chang created using techniques drawn from Western and Chinese art and handcraft traditions. Expect silkscreen prints on plexiglass, resin and bronze sculptures, as well as traditional embroidery and calligraphy.

When: Saturday, 20 February to Sunday, 4 April, Wednesday to Sunday, 11am to 7pm

Where: The Stallery, G/F, 82A Stone Nullah Lane, Wan Chai, Hong Kong

Contact: 2771 3800, info@thestallery.com

How much: Free entry